Hi, I am Sally. I work at a hospital in New York as a nurse. My job is very tiring. I leave home very early in the mornings and return home late in the evenings so I prepared this tomato soup for busy days. I sometimes send it with my daughter for lunch at school. I don't want my daughter to eat something unhealthy at the canteen so I always prepare healthy food for her. If you are busy like me, you can cook this tomato soup easily. Here is the recipe;

- First, peel four or five tomatoes and grate them. Don't forget to wash them before peeling.
- Heat three tablespoons of butter and a tablespoon of flour in a large pot for about two minutes but don't let it become brown.
- Then, pour the grated tomatoes into the pot and boil ten minutes.
